Structural Linguistics on Sirohi

By Shomit Sirohi

All of these styles are finally the major contours of the world by analysis – it includes in fact a news style which is then how Slavoj Zizek speaks about the news – which is then a style called dialectical speaking. I mean it is all covered as the style of lecturing in Philosophy and is also in fact many styles of lecturing called by Alain Badiou – the formalist style.

I. World Criticism and even World Analysis which is about the process of history and contemporary capitalism. World Analysis is like Badiou there.

II. Existentialism and Marxism – progressive-regressive method which includes history as in fact a totalization of exteriority lived as interiority, that type of scientific history. Perhaps also Bepop and history.

III. Forms of Criticism – like City criticism or even forms of critical commentaries – Comments, genius and commentaries.

IV. Literary Criticism, and Film criticism, Cultural Criticism

V. All organized as in fact Lectures and Topics. Even for Mathematics.

Part II – Derived Forms

I. World Philology and Bible Studies

II. Jewish lectures and speech style with Kabbalah

III. Averroes and Islam studies, Edward Said and Orientalism for the contemporary.

IV. Psychoanalysis and the Keys, Tenors and Dialectical movements.

V. Dialectics – Open, Pure and Technical and even organic and free dialectics.

VI. German Idealism – as a syntax of culture and formalisms of culture which then goes back to Heidegger and Hegel in their forms of criticism.

And so on and so forth – that in fact all of the styles then come about as – Styles of Gutenberg type perhaps, Irving College type.

VII. Linguistics and Language Formalisms – like Ortega y Gasset as well.
